NEGLIGEE SHIRTS

AT LESS than WHOLESALE PRICES. We have closed out the entire lines of three of the best negligee shirt makers, at prices which enable us to sell them at retail for LESS than the other dealers paid for them earlier in the season. They are the celebrated Eagle, Emory, and Eclipse brands, and here's the prices: Those that sold at wholesale at $10, $12, and $13.50 per dozen you can have at 75c. each. Those that were $15, $16.50, and $18 per dozen are $1.00, and those that were $20, $21, $22.50, and $24 are $1.50 each. Soft, unlaundered ones 63c and 98c each. They are all of the newest patterns and colorings, and are perfect fitting. See the window display of them and compare our prices with those asked by the other dealers for the same qualities and patterns, we'll save you nearly half. ALL sizes for MEN and BOYS.

Let us sell you a white or striped serge or flannel suit. We have the only complete line in town.

afternoon at National Park by a score of 10 to 7. being the rank decisions of Umpire Emalie, who under all circumstances. It is not the province but such work as that of yesterday was so pal pably partial that a reference to it is absolutely pably partial that a reference to it is absolutely necessary.

Mani started in to pitch, but had to retire in the third, being hit on the left arm above the elbow by a pitched ball. Maguire doing his running. Bannon was also hit. The ball struck him on the left temple. The plucky little fellow tried to resume play, but after one inning he retired and Ganzel took his place.

Duffy's work in the center field was of the marvelous order. He caught a fly off Maguire's bat which would have netted the favorite catcher a home run. The fielder caught the ball in deep right center while on a dead run. The 1,500 people shouted with as much vigor as the applause which greeted the name of Grover Cleveland when he was placed in nomination the third time Hughey gracefully doffed his cap as he came in from the field and again when he went to the bat, being the first man up.

Ward was given his base on balls in the first inning. He stole second, and went to third on linesamer's hit, and while Long and Lowe were trying to make a double play on Abbey's hit, he scored. Maguire hit a fly to short left field. It was thought safe, and Abbey sprinted toward third. McCarthy made a great catch and then the ball was passed around, each of the Boston players assisting in the double play to Nichols on first.

In the sixth Cartwright after making a single was forced out at second on Radford's hit. The latter tried to steal second but failed, and Sullivan died on third after making a long triple.

Cartwright earned first in the sighth, and was brough home by Radford's hit for three bases. Paul tried to get home on Sullivan's hit to Tucker. It was a very close decision, but like all others made by Emsile the Bostons got the best of it.

BANQUET FINISHED SECOND

Many Thousands Witnessed the Principal Handicap of the Year Bun at Sheepshead Bay-Jockey Taral Won the Triple Event, Brooklyn, Metropolitan, and Suburban.

Coney Island Jockey Club track set in hot, but just as the horses went to the post a cool air from the sea made the heat a trifle more bearabout The attendance was by no means as great as the Brooklyn handicap day at Gravesend, but still there was an uncomfortable crowd.

In the betting ring there were enough people to suit anybody. It was almost impossible to move about, and when some bookmaker helsted a little better odds than another on some favor-ite animal the rush was irresistible. Hats were lost, coats were torn, and tempers spoiled in the struggle, and scarcely anybody escaped the wild rushes. The bookmakers were too few in number for such a day, and they could get all the money they wanted to hold. There was plenty of money on the races before the Sub-urban, but when the big race was announced

TARAL THE GREAT BERO. When the trumpet sounded the horses came out and made the usual parade, with Henry of Navarre leading, followed by Sport, Kinglets Comanche, Banquet, Ramapo, Charade, King Lee, Don Alonzo, St. Michael, Pickpocket bringing up the rear kicking and plunging. Sir Walter was not in the parade, but followed the others up to the pearade, our followed insothers up to the post and getting the most applause, as he was the only one who could be singred out. Then came a long delay at the post, and finally "they're off" was heard, and they were. Only two minutes and six seconds elapsed, and then Taraldrove Ramapo in at the head of the lot, with Banquet hanging on like grim death to his saddlegirths.

The crowd rushed to the locker's stand and Taral was carried off to his room. He was out of his silks in a few seconds, it seemed, and then before the race had been over ten minutes, was out of the grounds on his way to Chicago to rideDomino in the American Derby. His face was wreathed in smiles as he rode the triple event, and in good style. Then the crowd melted away like show in the sunlight, and the trains homeward were crowded in spite of the fact that the first hurdle race on the track had yet to be run.

It was a great day for the Coney Island Jockey Chib, and not less than 25,00 people were present to enjoy the sport. All went home happy for the favrice had won the Suburban.

It was a wise myre of Taral's to pay $500 for the mount as it brought him in much more money, for Gideon and Daly are by no means parsimonious employers.

STARTER BOWE LOST HIS TEMPER. others up to the post and getting the most ap-

A quarter before 5 o'clock and the twelve orses which were to contend for the valuable borses which were to contend for the valuable prize were all at the post at the end of the chute waiting for the signal to be off. Several times they broke away and one or two were left. Once there was a ceasufflui start spoiled by Doggett, on Sir Walter, who did not break with the rest. Then St. Michael began to cut up badly and would have nothing to do with the others. Ricking and plunging about, and trying to give his contestants a taste of his heels. Bergen, his jockey, refused to go where he was sent by the starter, and in consequence was set down for the rest of the meeting and fined $200. Comanche was ugly, too, and Martin refused to do as Rowe told him, which cost him the same penalty as was meted out to Bergen. Rowe got down on the ground and tried his luck from that point.

In the second break he caught them all in motion and sent them away to a fine start, with Kinglet in the lead, closely followed by Henry of Navarre, Pickpocket, Banquet, Comanche, Hamapo, Sir Walter and the others. Pat the grand stand they flashed, with Griffin urging Kinglet to the utmost and with the positions of the others but slightly changed. The first quarter was run in 25 seconds, and then Kinglet had the best of it, while Banquet with all his weight was taken into second place by Simms, only half a length in front of Ramapo, on whom Taral had a gentle pull. The willy Dutchman could see then that Banquet was the horse he had to beat, for he was a length behind, with Pickpocket still a contender, and for a wonder he was not sulking. The three-year-old of which so much was expected dropped back into fifth place, King Lee close behind and Sir Walter following, with Sport absolutely last. Thempsen apparently not being able to make him extend himself.

The half-mile post was passed by the fiving prize were all at the post at the end of the chute

KINGLET SET THE PACE. Kinglet in 50 1-5 seconds, but he was only three parts of a length in front of Banquet, and was already hanging out signals of distress. Banquet was still half a length ahead of the next horse, but it was Pickpocket who had changed places with Hamapo, and looked exceedingly dangerous. Henry of Navarre was still fifth, but could not get any further to the flying leaders. At the three-quarters Banquet passed the pole first in 1:16 1-5, leading Kinglet by a head, Simms At the three-quarters Banquet passed, the pole first in 1:16 1-5, leading Kinglet by a head, Simms having made up his mind to let out a link or two. Kinglet was then two lengths ahead of Pickpocket, who was still going strongly, he in turn two lengths ahead of Henry of Navarre. Taral having let the three-year-old pass him at that point. Sir Walter was running strongly in aixth place. The time to the mile poet was 1:41, and Kinglet, under Griffin's strong urging, had got the first place by a head from Banquet, but it was the last effort of that badly tired horse. Sport was beginning to show some life and was up in eighth place, running strongly and very much in the contest. Pickpocket was still third, but only a head over Henry of Navarre, he in turn being a neck in front of Ramapo, on whom Taral was beginning to ride. Sir Walter still running in sixth place. Then came the turn into the atretch, and "Look at Sport" was the cry, for Thompson took him around next the rail, and he was cutting down the others in a most remarkable fashion. Taral heard the thunder of Sport's heels close behind him, as did Sims on Banquet, and they woke up to the fact that the rogue was coming down the stretch like a thunderbolt, and was fighting like grim death for at least a part of the money.

RAMAPO PADDED THE WINNER.

RAMAPO PADDED THE WINNER. Kinglet quit immediately and took no further nterest in the contest. Pickpocket had had enough of it, too, and he dropped back without a murmur. Sport was not alone in his rush, for the westerner, King Lee, was coming along, the westerner. King Lee, was coming along, too, with lots of run left in him, and it was apparent that the finish would lie between Ramapo, Banquet, Sport, and King Lee. Taral was riding for dear life, with Banquet still a long distance in front, but he was gaining a few inches with every juup, while Sport was hanging on altogether too well to suit either Sims or Taral. The three ran close together until the last fifty yards, when the persistent spurring and florging of Taral gradually drove Ramapo's head in front. Banquet's nose was beside him, and it was all over.

head in front. Hanquet's nose was beside him, and it was all over.

The game geiding was not equal to the emergency and he had to be content with a second place, two lengths in front of Sport. King Leegot fourth by four lengths from Heary of Navarre, who ran a game race, but was in too fast company for his weight. Pickpocket was sixth, Sir Walter seventh, and the rest trailing behind. Some of them pulled up.

THE OTHER BACES. The first was a great upset, for Correction ran away from Stonenell, winning by six lengths in 59 2-5 seconds, breaking the track record of 0:59 4-5, made a year ago by Sirocco. The second race was for selling platers, and Rowe caught them at the first attempt for a beautiful start. The finish was exciting, for Candelabra, Long Beach, and Melody crossed the line in that order only heads apart. In the third race the young-sters got away in good order, and Maretti won only heads apart. In the injurace the youngsters got away in good order, and Maretti won with ease.

The fourth race was also for maiden two-yearolds and The Bluffer won with ease. Then came the Suburban. The next race was for threeyear-olds at selling weights and Mr. Jingle was an odds on favorite, but Gideon and Daiy could not carry off three races in one day, and Mr.
Jingle had to be content with the third place,
while Chant won with Factotum second.

The last race was for steeplechasers at two miles, and Bailarat played with the others winning, almost pulled to a walk. There was a ratting finish between Jugurtha, Woodford, and St. John, and they finished in that order heads apart for the place. Summaries:

subcommittee of the House Commerce Committee, which has in charge the Nicaragua canal project, laid the first draft of the bill which he has drawn before the committee yes-phraseology, but there is still a difference of opinion on important points. Mr. Mallory favors an issue of $100,000,000 in stock instead of $83,000,000, the amount fixed by the committee previously.

The larger issue, he says, would leave a margin of $17,000,000, which might be sold to meet unexpected expenses. He is also making a stand for the use of money in part instead of bonds. Next Wednesday the bill will be laid before the full committee.

Consolidating Three of the Great Southern Systems, Embracing Eleven States. ATLANTA, Ga., June 21 .- There are indications that by the 1st of October there will be a mammoth consolidation of Southern railways-the largest of the kind ever consummated in the South. The consolidation will comprise three great systems with lines in eleven Southern states—Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Missassippi, Louisiana, Tennessee, and Kentucky. The sale of the Richmond and Danville con-

The sale of the Richmond and Danville contains the keynote, and Drexel, Morgan & Co. are the central figures. The new company will comprise the Richmond and Danville, the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia, and the Cincinnait Southern systems. The Chesapeake and Ohio road, it is said, will be very friendly to the organization, and will be operated so as to secure the best results of both systems. Samuel Spencer, it is affirmed, will be the president of the new system.

Rich-Arnold Wedding. The New York avenue Presbyterian church was yesterday the scene of a high noon wedding. The contracting parties were Walter S. Rich, a business man of Asterville, Mass, and Miss business man of Asterville, Mass., and Miss Josephine M. Arnold, a well-known young lady who lives at No. 31 C street northeast.

The ceremony was performed by Rev Dr. Bartlett, pastor of the church of which Miss Arnold was a member. The church was tastefully decorated with flowers, and many friends of the family were present. The bride was sattired in a neat traveling dress and entered the church on the arm of her father. After the ceremony the couple were driven to the home of the bride, where a wedding breakfast was served. Later they left for a three weeks wedding tour through New England.

BOOKS GOT ALL THE MONEY

Beaten at the Island Track.

BIG PLAY ON THE SUBURBAN

Thousands of Dollars Were Invested in the Great Sheepshead Bay Handicap in the Foreign Books Sweet Alice and Traitor Were the Winning Favorites - 18

A large crowd patronized the Alexander leland track yesterday, the principal attraction being the opportunity to bet on the Suburban handicap in the foreign books. When the track odds were posted in the big race three books were besieged with betters, and thousands of dollars were wagered on the result. Nearly every starter had some support, and the public probably beat the books, as a good deal of money went in on Ramapo to win and Sport to show.

With respect to the local races, three strong favorities were beaten and the talent again got the worst of the argument with the beokmakers, as both Sweet Alice and Traitor, the winning choices, were at odds on, and their success did not make up for the defeat of the Saction, Margherita, and Meteorier.

In the opening event, which was for maiden two-year-olds, Miss Castles was made the pronounced favorite, being backed down from seven to one to six to five. At the head of the stretch the favorite flattered her backers, but the Tympanee cold had the greater speed and won handily at the end; in forty-eight seconds for the half mile, making a new track record.

Margherita was supposed to be an airtight for the accord race, but Castlaway II, Jame as he was, simply staggered home an easy winner, while the favorite had to be contented with fourth position.

while the favorite had to be contented with fourth position.
With the downfall of two favorites in succession the talent played Sweet Alice to win the five furiougs sprint and she did the trick in handy fashion. The fourth race resulted in the success of another odds on choice. Traitor winning easily from Betroit. In this race Tepimust led for three-quarters of the trip and then stopped to a walk, he being seized with an attack of bleedling.
The final event was considered as all over, bar shouting, for McKeever, but Tommy Brophy slipped away from the field and collared the purse, while Lita beat McKeever a head for the place. Summaries:
